Tractio Decking

Decking new powerhouse

A trailblazer in decking, Tractio's breakthrough technology delivers strength and stability like never before. Enjoy the beautiful, streamlined look of a modern timber deck - with the lasting confidence that comes with powerhouse materials and manufacturing.

Groundbreaking strength, seamless style

Decking's new powerhouse - strong, lightweight and durable, Tractio decking is unlike any other decking material on the market. The polypropylene calcium carbonate filled decking is powerful, stable and water-resistant.

Enjoy low-maintenance performance, beautiful timber looks, and unmatched strength limiting splintering, sagging, chalking or cracking – in most environments.

Design and Performance
